

DPoint Technologies James Dean wins Canada's Top 40 Under 40™ Award

March 6, 2006

Vancouver, Canada – DPoint Technologies Inc., a developer of fuel cell humidification products today announced that James Dean, Founder and CEO, has been named a Recipient of Canada's Top 40 Under 40™ for 2005.

Canada's Top 40 Under 40™ is a prestigious national award program, which annually honours 40 Canadians in the private, public and not-for-profit sectors under the age of 40. The program, now in its 11th year, is managed by founding sponsor, The Caldwell Partners. Other sponsors include The Globe and Mail, Certified General Accountants of Canada, Air Canada and Privilege Magazine.

James and his peers were selected from over 1200 nominees by an independent Advisory Board, comprised of 29 business leaders from across Canada. Honourees were chosen on five key criteria including: vision and leadership; innovation and achievement; impact; community involvement and contribution; and strategy for growth.

The 2005 Recipients of Canada's Top 40 Under 40™ were featured in The Globe and Mail on May 2nd. Honourees will attend a series of celebratory events at the beginning of May in Toronto, including an Awards Ceremony to be held at Arcadian Court on May 2nd.
